Dear Dr. Green,

I asked at the Heber Valley Medical Center if it would be possible to make a copy of the "stag, coach". The lady I talked to said she didn't know if there was a copy right on the photo but she would let me know. She never called back, but I was lucky and found I had one. I'm sending you a copy. The picture at the medical center is of better quality.

My Grandfather Robert Taylor Kimball <sup>owned</sup> the Kimball Brother & Dexter Stable in Park City (Dexter was a horse).

Wishing you well in your writing & research. Paul Kimball
